

Research Title	Byzantine Typika (Monasteries Organization Documents) as a source for studying the medicine and public health in Byzantine State
Researcher Data:	Dr. Mohammed Zayed Abdallah Eid – Fayoum University – Faculty of Arts – Department of History - mza@fayoum.edu.eg – Egypt.
Abstract	Byzantine Typika is documents expressed about roles who have organized the Byzantine monasteries. It contains on perfect data about many issues, as philanthropically institutes followed monasteries. Hospitals are one of those important institutes, that its documents were very important one for studying the medicine and public health in medieval ages. Those documents contained data about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Types of Hospitals and its departments.</li> <li>- Doctors, Assistants, Nurses and another service Functions.</li> <li>- The spreading diseases at that time and the cure means.</li> <li>- The Surgical instruments, Medicine and Pharmacology.</li> <li>- The Financial Organizations for Hospitals.</li> <li>- The Care for Old Age.</li> </ul>
Keywords	Byzantine State, Diseases, Medicine, Monasteries, Public Health, Typikon.
Journal Name	Annals of the Seminar of Islamic and Medieval History, the Egyptian Society for Historical Studies, Cairo, No. I, (٢٠١١), pp. ٢٢٣-٢٥٨.
Publishing Date	٢٠١١