

Fayoum University

Faculty of Social Work

Fields of Social Work Department

Research Summary Of

Requirements of creativity professional of social workers in the medical field

By

Dr. SAFAA AZIZ MAHMOUD

Teacher at Fields of Social Work Department

Fayoum University– Faculty of Social Work

International Scientific Conference ٢٦

(Social Work and slums development)

Volume N. ١٤

Published in ٦-٧ March ٢٠١٣

Firstly : A problem of the study :

Because of social worker is a professional person who responsible for social work practice and the tool was achieved its aims, constantly he needs to getting more of knowledgs, skills and experiences until relizing his professional personality in order to be more capacity for his responsibility and contributes by more activity role to a good quality professional practice and professional creativity that help social workers who work in medical field to transfer of tradition pattern in profession performance and how dealing with problems that met them whether connecting with material capabilities or teamwork who work within his memebers or broblems which connecting with mnagment or clients. It confirmed by many researches and previous studies that motivate researcher for this study to determinate the requirements that achieved the professional creativity of social workers in medical field and determinate study problem in (Requirements of creativity professional of social workers in the medical field) .

Secondly : study aims :

The first major aim :

Recognizing on the professional creativity requirements of social workers in the medical field by this sub-aims :

- ١- Determination of the professinal creativity characteristics of social workers in the medical field.
- ٢- Determination of the professinal creativity aspects of social workers in the medical field.

The second major aim :

Recognizing on the professional creativity obstcales of social workers in the medical field.

The third major aim :

Put a suggestion imagination to achieve the professional creativity for social workers in medical field.

Thirdly: study Questions :

The first major question :

What are the professional creativity requirements of social workers in the medical field? this question measure by these following questions :

- ١- What are the professinal creativity characteristics of social workers in the medical field ?
- ٢- What are the professinal creativity aspects of social workers in the medical field ?

The second major question :

What are the professional creativity obstcales of social workers in the medical field ?

The third major question :

What is the suggestion imagination to achieve the professional creativity for social workers in medical field ?

fourth: study concepts :

(Requirement - Professional Creativity)

Fifth : Study procedures :

A-This study blong to analystic descriptve studies which aimed to confirm and determinate characteristics of a certain problem that is the professional creativity of social workers and the importance of its requirements by data and information collecting which connecting with this problem, its analystic and explanation. Because it depended on the overall social survey method of social workers in medical field.

B- Study tools :

- Professional creativity measurement to social workers in medical field .
- An interview evidence for experts and managers of social work administration .

sixth : study fields :

١- Place field : Medical institutions at Fayoum governorate . It included all the government hospitals and medical centers which numbered (١٢ public hospitals – ٦ medical centers) .

٢- Human field : All the social workers who working at public hospitals and medical centers numbered (٥٧) as (٤٤ social workers at public hospitals , ١٣ social workers at medical centers) .

٣- Time field : The period of theoretical and practical study from ١/٥/٢٠١٢ to ١٥/١٠/٢٠١٢

seventh : study results :

- ١- Study results that connecting with requirements of professional creativity of social workers in medical field and related with characteristics of professional creativity confirmed that social workers have some of high percentage creativity characteristics, the most important are :
 - Seeking to understand the mysterious professional situations, trusting in self, some of available creativity characteristics by medium degree as trying to find relations between client study aspects and some of available creativity characteristics by weak percentage, and not bear work responsibility alone.
- ٢- Study results that connecting with aspects of professional creativity of social workers in medical field confirmed that the important professional creativity aspects that are available significantly are ability to determine what are preventing the clients problems solution and satisfied clients needs in institution from medium professional creativity aspects and aspects that social workers not creativity in it. The aspects that workers not creativity in it is depending on new techniques in work.
- ٣- Also Study results confirmed that there are many of professional creativity obstacles.