

Second Term methodology exam

Answer the following questions:

Question One:

A- Differentiate between each two of the following terms: (40m.)

- 1- Assessment and evaluation.
- 2- ESL and EFL.
- 3- Visual and auditory learners.
- 4- Classroom management and discipline.
- 5- Formative evaluation and summative evaluation.

B- Write about each of the following: (30m.)

- 1- Characteristics of a good EFL teacher.
- 2- Bloom's taxonomy of educational objectives in the cognitive domain.
- 3- The importance of evaluation for the teacher and the students.
- 4- How the teacher can present vocabulary to the students.
- 5- Six skills used by EFL teachers in the lesson implementation stage.

Question Two: (30m.)

“Listening is the language skill which learners find the most difficult because they feel under pressure to understand every word.”

A- Discuss the teacher's role in achieving the aims related to this skill.

B- Describe miming stories and creating stories as two listening activities.