First: The problem and the importance of studying:

The childhood of the most important stages of human life, because the effects are reflected on the rest of his life in the future, it helps to be a character and determine the inclinations and motivations and also help the formation of habits and traditions and to identify the ideal to him and where learning and education, so the State is seeking to pay attention to the future of the child is in Indeed, to ensure the future of the people of its impact because the maker of the future childhood today is a man of tomorrow.

Where the situation is normal that the child shall be established and grow and spent his early years in the custody of his family, family is the most important element in shaping the child's personality and an important means in the transfer of children's social heritage.

Children are the underlying strength and hope for the future and his men, but that unfortunately there are many reasons that prevent the arise of the child in a family, vowing to care, repair and handsome he has had to grow and learn and gain a lot of experiences and spiritual values and social reasons that prevent the arise of the child character It is a special case without the owners because this category of children do not have the elements of the defense of their rights.

Was important to take care of the mother and where the pain inside T. residential institutions, it is the supervisors should pose concern for them because they are often not trained to this work and those children with different needs, in particular they must have the skills of more than Mother Nature.
