Abstract

A- The results of the study showed statistically significant differences between mean ranks of the scores obtained by members of the experimental groups of avoidant, dependent and depressive personality disorders in pre-test and post-test, favoring post-test.

B- The results of the study showed no statistically significant differences between mean ranks of the scores obtained by members of the experimental groups of avoidant and dependent personality disorders in post-test and follow-up test.

C- The results of the study showed statistically significant differences between mean ranks of the scores obtained by members of the experimental group of depressive personality disorders in post-test and follow-up test, favoring follow-up test.

D- The results of the study showed that the clinical picture of personality of the individuals with avoidant and dependent personality disorders person before being subjected to the programs differs than it after being subjected to these programs.

E- The results of the study showed that the clinical picture of personality of the individuals with depressive personality disorder person before being subjected to the program don't differ than it after being subjected to this program.