2- knowledge and belief in the philosophy of mind in T.Williamson. It distinguishes between K and B ,K relates to material reality through the clear evidence, but B exists only inside our minds and it does not need to any evidence .T.Williamson defines his method in neutral method which combines between mind faculties and the real objects in a whole union which can not be analized.