

I-Read the following passage then choose the correct answer:

(2.5 Marks)

Although speech is the most advanced form of communication, there are many ways of communication without using speech. Signals, signs, symbols, and gestures may be found in every known culture. The basic function of a signal is to explain the environment in such a way that it attracts attention, for example, the dots and dashes of a telegraph circuit. Signs also contain meaning in and of themselves. A stop sign conveys meaning quickly and conveniently. Symbols are more difficult to describe than either signals or signs because of their complicated relationship with the receiver's cultural perceptions. In some cultures, applauding in a theatre provides performers with an auditory symbol of approval. Gestures such as waving and handshaking also communicate certain cultural messages.

Although signals, signs, symbols, and gestures are very useful, they do have a major disadvantage. They usually do not allow ideas to be shared without the sender being directly next to the receiver. As a result, means of communication intended to be used for long distances and extended periods are based upon speech.
