Opposite Day, by Janine

Every year on February 28, my family celebrates Opposite Day. On Opposite Day, everyone does the opposite of what we usually do. For example, I'm a ballet dancer. My brother Jake plays basketball. On Opposite Day, Jake dances and I play basketball.

Does Opposite Day sound fun? It is! My mother normally cooks dinner. My father cleans up. On Opposite Day, they do the opposite. He cooks. She cleans. Jake usually listens to hard rock radio. I like classical. On Opposite Day, we switch. The symphony for him. Rock for me. And so on. Opposite Day even changes the way we act. Normally, I'm shy. But on Opposite Day? I tell jokes and laugh all day. The same with Jake. He turns into Mr. Serious on Opposite Day. It's a blast.

Opposite Day even hits our family pets. My dog Peanut eats cat food on Opposite Day, while Mabel the cat eats dog food. We tried to get Peanut to meow and Mabel to bark--- but they just won't do it!
