Sbt-wnSb offering in the temples of Greco Roman Period
"A new Vision around the Concept and Significance"

Abstract:

^bt or wnSb is one of the important offerings depicted on the Egyptian temples walls from the 18th Dynasty down to Greco-Roman period. This tool has classified by the previous studies as one of the time-measuring method which was developed by the ancient Egyptians, This goal is not recorded by the accompanied texts, so I hope by this work to re-shed light on this sacred instrument throught, its nature and its symbolic significance.
