

Cairo university
Faculty of archeology
Department Of Egyptology

The sSS wAD rite

From ealiest ages

To The End of the New Kingdom

Thesis of Master Degree in Egyptology

Prepared by

Rania Abdul Aziz Mahmoud Mesbah

Assistant at the Deparement Of Egyotology

Faculty of Archaeology –Fayoum university

Under Supervision

Prof Dr./Abdel-Halim Nur el-din

Professer of The Ancient Egyptian Language
The Formost Dean of faculty of Archaeology
Fayoum Unversity

Co- supervision
Dr /Mohamed Hassun
Faculty of Archaeology
Cairo university

Cairo
2008

Abstract;

This research is taking about The sSS WAD rite in Ancient Egyptian Civilization. It is considered as one of the most important rites which is related with the sacred papyrus plant . It has several roles in the religious , profane and political life of Ancient Egyptians. The sSS WAD rite was related with several deities such as " Hathor " , "Amon –Min –Re ka –mwt.f " kadesh" . "Bes" , " Heka-s " and "Khedou " ; rites such as Funeral rites ,offering rites and the int –rd rite ; profance travels such as travel for hunting or with sheep through marsh lands and swamps .It asserted the royal power for the kings who make it, and that prove the importance of this rite in ancient Egyptian life. Which was Shown and by the ritual symbols such as sistrum and menat .Theses symbols with its voice ,movement and symbolic assimilated the voice and movement asserted of papyrus in the acts of the rite.