

Abstract of my MSC thesis
Remaining Buildings of Princess Chivekiar in Cairo
"Comparative artistical archeological study"

The researcher study Remaining Buildings of Princess Chivekiar in Cairo civil and funeral of it, also analyzed architectural and artistical styles for these buildings , and he explained architectural and ornamental elements , artistical influences . he divided his research to Introduction and Historical iterance and five chapters ,

Introduction :

It contained factors of subject choice, research method, difficulties that faced him and most important resources and references that he depend on.

Historical iterance:

Contained princess Chivekiar biography and her social activities and buildings .

First chapter:

Description of palace of princess Chivekiar in Matariyya "museum of prince Mohamed Wahid El-Din under construction".

Second chapter:

Description of palace of princess Chivekiar in Kasr El- Aini street "Current building of Egyptian council of ministers".

Third chapter:

Description of palace of princess Chivekiar in Garden City "Kasr el Doubara school for language now".

Fourth chapter:

Description of mausoleum of princess Chivekiar in Manshit Nasr in El- Drassa.

Chapter five:

Comparative and analytical study.

conclusion: It contains the most important results ;

1-The researcher reviewed remaining buildings of princess Chivekiar in Cairo that includes four palaces(palace of El Matariyya - palace of Kasr El-Aini street- palace of Garden City and her mausoleum in manshiat Nasser . This study is a new post for some of these buildings, especially her palaces which not dealt with one from a distance.

2-Buildings of princess Chivekiar Included several different architectural and artistic styles are, the researcher analyzed these models and the architectural and decorative elements and he compared them .

3-The researcher managed to date the palace of El –Matariyya through the inscription above the sabil attached to the palace.

4-The researcher guessed the engineer who built buildings of Princess Chivekiar is (an Austrian engineer) Antonio Lasiac.

5-The researcher has published several important documents for these buildings, especially Palace of Kasr Al-Aini Street, which occupies a building the Council of Ministers today.

