Abstract:

This paper seeks to study the \textit{swnt} documents (form, formulae, and function) and its role in the legal practice in the Egyptian society, in addition to an inventory of the administration structure of these documents. This study depend on collection of \textit{swnt} document which dating to the middle kingdom until the new kingdom.