

Al-Muhasibi's Criticism of the Sufism of His Age

Al-Muhasibi's criticizes the Sufism of his age through his defense of subconscious acts and their appearance on the external and also through his correction of ascetics' way of life. He also refutes intruders' and pretenders' views. He tried to highlight the views introduced by some groups regarding asceticism, piety, trust in God, fasting, fear, and devotion. An analytical comparative method was used in this research.
