

البحث الثاني

Research Title	A sociological Analysis of the phenomenon of suicide in Egyptian society from the perspective of Emile Durkheim
Researcher :Data	Dr Noha Mohamed Ahmed EL sayed– Fayoum University – nms00@fayoum.edu.eg - Faculty of Arts – Department of Sociology
Abstract	The study aimed to reveal the overall causes that lead to suicide by conducting a guaranteed analysis of suicides through the Al-Ahram website from 2011 – 2018 and for this reason the study presented a major question looking for the social, economic, health, cultural and a delegation adopted theoretically. The study is based on the sociology of on suicide, and a methodology, the study relied on “Durkheim” a descriptive study method and a content analysis method, using a tool, which is a content analysis form on international sample of 175 individuals. The study reached many results, including: difference in suicide rates vary depending on the demographic characteristics in terms of (gender, age, etc. ....). Also, suicide is due to many social, economic and cultural, healthy, and political factors. In addition to that there are multiple methods of suicide between hanging jumping (..... .from height, etc
Keywords	A sociological Analysis, the phenomenon of suicide, Emile Durkheim
Journal Name	Journal of Human and Literary Studies /Kafr Elsheikh University
Publishing Date	2019