Abstract

This research deals on the grammatical opinions preferred by Ibn Hisham in one of his most essential books titled "At-Tadhkirah", which has remained nowhere to be found. Nonetheless, Muhammad bin Jalal At-Tabbany Al-Hanafy was able to summarize the contents of the book, thus preserving a great deal of the original invaluable book. This is where the paramountcy of carrying out this research becomes glaring as it will enable us realize the views of Ibn Hisham in this book compared to other books he wrote on similar subject. Hence, the research appeared in an introduction, preface, three sections and a conclusion.

In the preface, I discussed about the "At-Tadhkirah" of Ibn Hisham and its summary done by At-Tabbany, Ibn Hisham's methodology in preferring opinions, terms and statements used to indicate preference and the basis of preference.

Section One dealt with his preferred opinions that do not correspond with his views in his other books, touching on ten issues.

Section Two dealt with his preferred opinions that correspond with his views in his other books, touching on six issues.

Section Three was meant to study the preferred opinions which he didn't discuss nor even indicate his viewpoint in his other books, touching on four issues.

The conclusion contained the most ideal findings of the research.

Key words: Opinion, Ibn Hisham, Grammar, At-Tadhkirah, summarized, At-Tabbany.
