

A proposal View to Activate the Role of School Counseling in Participating to Overcome the Violence in Secondary Schools of the Arab Republic of Egypt in the light of the Experiences of Some countries

Abstract:

The research aims to reveal the role of the school counseling toward violence in the United States and South Korea; to activate this role at schools in the Arab Republic of Egypt, this paper used the comparative method, and relies on the two tools questionnaire and fulfilled applied to teachers of primary schools, and a personal interview with a number of faculty members, the research relieved a proposal to activate the role of school counseling to overcome the violence at schools in the Arab Republic of Egypt in the light of my experience of the United States and South Korea.