

The Role of Housing Financial in the Development and Activation of Population Stability
In the New Communities

Prepared by:

Waleed Hussein Ali Hussein.

A Thesis Submitted to the Faculty of Engineering at Cairo University
In partial fulfillment of the Requirements for the degree of Master of Sciences In Architecture.

Faculty of engineering, Cairo University

Prof. Dr/ Hesham Sameh Hussein

Professor of architecture

Department of Architecture

Faculty of engineering- Cairo

University

Prof.Dr/ Hesham mahmoud Aref

(The head of architectural department

– Fayom University).

Dr / Mohamed Reda Abdullah.

Doctor of architecture

Department of Architecture

Faculty of engineering- Cairo

University

Research Abstract:

The research study deals with two fields which are: Real state and housing in the new societies in Egypt, and it is discussing how to developing and activation of the people settlement in the new civilizational societies, and it talked about an administration for the financing concepts through administration of the housing financing system in Egypt and all over the world, and also attaching the Egyptian experiment with the modern reality by analysis of National Mubarak Project to found half million housing unit through six years, and the research study sticks to specific recommendations for activation of the role of the law and activation of the people settlement in the new societies in Egypt.