

The Role of context in guiding the meaning in the Al-Bayan complex in the interpretation of the Qur'an to Tabarsi as a grammatical semantic study

By

Akram Mohamed Okap Mohamed

Lecturer of morphology and Arabic grammar

Faculty of Arts- Fayoum University

English Summary

The title of this research is “The Role of context in guiding the meaning in the Al-Bayan complex in the interpretation of the Qur'an to Tabarsi as a grammatical semantic study”. The study include the introduction, preface, two sections, a conclusion, and references, as shown provided reasons for research, and previous studies, and the approach taken in the study.

The preface dealt with the following terms: "direction, significance and context" in terms of language and terminology, and talked about the importance of context, the components of the context, and the context in Tabarsi, In the first section, the researcher shows external components of context applied to the interpretation of Tabarsi, and in the second section dealt with the internal components of the context applied to the interpretation of Tabarsi, results carries the most important findings of the research, the most important recommendations recommended by the research, and finally proven sources.

The research concluded to a number of results, the most important of which is that Tabarsi interested in the internal and external context in his interpretation, and this indicates that the evidence that the Arabs knew the context and its importance before the West, and if they did not consider it, but they applied it in their literature.