

English Abstract

Chapter I: contain name of the city, then study determine the geographical location of the city of Megiddo, and the archaeological missions that the digging and excavations at Megiddo.

Chapter II: presents the stone ages at Megiddo.

Chapter III: presents the historical background of the city of Megiddo, starting with Egyptian control of Megiddo, then the Canaanite and Palestinian presence, then age of Solomon "peace upon him" , then at the end the Assyrian and Persian control at Megiddo .

Chapter IV: it has allocated to study the importance of civilization of the city of Megiddo, Megiddo was an important commercial center in the ancient world, then researcher offered the religious life in Megiddo, and buildings of architectural, then explanation of the irrigation system and water at Megiddo, then study the stables of horses in Megiddo, then study Ivories.

And in the conclusion, contain most important results in the study.