

The community culture projection in the Kinetic Family Drawing Test: Comparative study between the Egyptians and Emiratis "

Abstract

This study aimed to know the differences between Egyptians & Emirates in Kinetic Family Drawings, in order to make across culture comparison between the two environments. Sample of this study consisted of two groups they were: Egyptian Sample, they consisted of 30 normal subjects, there ages were between 27: 44 years old, the other Sample were Emirates Sample, they consisted of 30 normal subjects, there ages were between 25: 47 years old, there weren't any differences between the two samples in the ages. Tools of this study were the Kinetic Family Drawing Test, Kinetic Family drawing analysis form & a form of Collecting main data about the Samples. Statistical analysis depended on T. test & Critical ratio. The results showed that: There were Significant Differences between Egyptians & Emirates in the kinetic family drawings. This means that there were across culture a difference between Egyptians and Emirates normal's in Kinetic Family Drawings.

The Major conclusions of this study were: The Kinetic Family Drawing Test is an important Projective Clinical & Diagnostic Tool. The Kinetic Family Drawing Test can distinguish between Normal's from Egypt and United Arab Emirates. The Kinetic Family Drawing Test is very useful tool leads to understand Family Dynamics & interactions between family members in different Societies & Cultures.

*بحث مشترك مع الأستاذ الدكتور/عادل خضر، منشور في
مجلة علم النفس، العدد ٨٢-٨٣ ديسمبر (٢٠٠٩) ٧٧-٩٤