KDI SCHOOL
KDI School of Public Policy and Management

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my sincere pleasure to inform you that KDI School of Public Policy and Management is providing full scholarship opportunities for outstanding government officials from your country for one of the degree programs below:

- Master of Public Policy(MPP)
- Master of Development Policy(MDP)
- Master of Public Management(MPM)
- Ph.D. in Public Policy(PP) : Specializations in Economic Policy or Development Policy

The KDI School was founded with an authorization from the Ministry of Education and Human Resources Development in 1997 to foster international experts with theoretical knowledge and practical skills in the field of development economics and public policy. The academic curriculum has been drawn from a wealth of research and resources from our mother institution, the Korea Development Institute(KDI), which is the nation's leading economic think tank.

Every year, KDI School admits outstanding international students from 70 different countries and about 95% of them receive tuition waiver and monthly stipend (app. 1000 USD) while pursuing their Master's or Ph.D. degree programs. More than 70% of our students are government officials and all lectures are conducted in English by renowned faculty with established credentials in both the public and the private sector.

The application deadline for Spring 2015 Admissions is October 24, 2014 and please feel free to contact the admissions office of KDI School for more information about the admissions and scholarship opportunities (Email: admissions@kdischool.ac.kr, Phone: 82-2-3299-1281/1220/1057).

I deeply appreciate your support and cooperation in advance and look forward to welcoming outstanding scholarship beneficiaries from your country.

Sincerely,

S. w. Nam

Sang Woo Nam
Dean of KDI School of Public Policy and Management
